The latest news from England shows the comparative price of American securities and British consols in the Loudon market to have been as follows:

United States fire-twenties.

70% a 70% British consols.

Sol; a 80% As the American bonds are purchased for Treasury notes, which are a discount of twenty-five per cent from gold, and as the above figures represent specie prices, they show that our securities are fast taking precedence in Eugiand of the consols of that country. In other parts of Europe the same disposition seems to have been maintested by capitalists to invest in United States stocks, as will be seen by the following extract from the London Nace money attack of the 6th instant:

The advices from Frankfort mention that notwithstanting the abundance of money, the liquidation at the end of the month was the casy, as large purchases of United States bends had to be provided for. Reformed a monume of the consols amounts to make the second at 128C, but there were all inken up at triang prices. | SECOND SESSION | 1 March | 1 March

The gold market remains unsettled, although coin for del very is searcer, 1-32 per cent having been paid for the loan of it till to-merrow. The opening price was 128½, followed by an advance to 128¾, and a subsequent decline to 127¾. The market afterwards became steadler, and at four o'clock the quotation was 128¾ a ½.

Foreign exchange was very firm and active, under large purchases by importers and on speculative account. The rate for bankers' bills on England at sixty days advanced to 107¾ a 108, three days 109¾.

Mining and petroleum stocks show increasing activity, especially the shares of gold uning companies, which are seeing the light again after being buried in the panic of the spring of 1864. At the first board Atlantic and Pacific of Nevada, a gold and silver stock, was in strong demand at $4 90 a $5. Ivanhoe closed 15c, lower than at the same time yesterday, selling at $2 90; Bennehoff Run 500, selling at $2 14 80; Excelsior 10c, selling at $2 100 and the same time yesterday, selling at $2 90; Bennehoff Run 500, selling at $2 14 80; Excelsior 10c, selling at $2 100 and the same time yesterday, selling at $2 90; Bennehoff Run 500, selling at $2 14 80; Excelsior 10c, selling at $2 100 and the same time yesterday, selling at $2 90; Bennehoff Run 500, selling at $2 90; Bennehof
